

IFLA NEWS

The IFLA Executive Committee is delighted to announce that Diane Menzies has been appointed chair of the IFLA Advisory Circle. Past President of IFLA, Diane is an honorary member of IFLA, Chair of the Landscape Foundation (New Zealand), Co-chair of Te Tau a Nuku, Māori landscape architects group and Deputy Chair of Ngā Aho, Maori designers network. She is a member of the Auckland Urban Design Panel. Her academic qualifications are in landscape architecture, horticulture, business management and mediation, as well as a PhD in Resource Studies concerning environmental quality. Her career has covered landscape architecture at city, regional and national planning levels as well as decision making in the New Zealand Environment Court.

The IFLA Advisory Circle provides expert insight and thought leadership on national, regional and international developments which directly or indirectly concern landscape architecture. The Circle will also monitor and identify key issues while facilitating the dissemination of position statements and advice from our members, friends and partners to landscape architects around the world.

The immediate aim of the Advisory Circle is to grow! IFLA is looking for experts and/or like minded networks of advisors with which to collaborate. If you are interested, please forward a brief CV and supporting statement (1A4 page) detailing your areas of expertise to: admin@iflaonline.org
