This weeks IFLA News comes from Damian Tang, President of IFLA Asia-Pacific region.

Happy New Year! It is the start of 2018 and projects deadlines began to kick in. But these are the three important deadlines you really do not want to miss!

3 IMPORTANT DEADLINES FOR THE START OF 2018

1. 15 Jan 2018 - Final Extended Call for Abstract Submission

Final extension due to multiple requests and those who have missed the earlier two deadlines. Do not miss the much awaited and exciting IFLA World Congress in Singapore. IFLA World Council Meeting falls on 16 & 17 July, and World Congress starts on 18-21 July. Please go to www.ifla2018.com for more information.

2. 2 Feb 2018 - Free registration and submission deadline for IFLA AAPME AWARDS

IFLA AAPME Awards - Resilience by Design is a special edition IFLA award initiated and co-organised by IFLA Africa, Asia-Pacific and Middle East region. It is a prestigious award, held in conjunction with IFLA World Congress Singapore, to raise climate change and resilience issues surrounding concerns of landscape

3. 30 April 2018 - End of Huge Savings & Early Bird Congress Registration

Yes, IFLA World Congress Singapore has devised a registration fees table that brings you huge savings of USD120 for IFLA members and up to USD320 for Concession Countries when you register before 30 April. Thereafter regular fees would apply. Coming in big groups or team of 3 will also bring you great discounts. For more information, please go to <http://www.ifla2018.com/congress-registration-fees/>.
